Burkina Faso
For more details: amrei.horstbrink@unitar.org

- Switch Africa Green in Burkina Faso now has a local steering committee (The National Technical Coordination Committee), which is also envisioned for PAGE implementation.

Mauritius
For more details: vera.weick@un.org

- A training session on green bonds market development was held during the Green Economy Forum. It was led by the Stock Exchange of Mauritius with the support of UNEP FI, in collaboration with Cicero, Climate Bonds Initiative and Frankfurt School.

South Africa
For more details: ronal.gainza@un.org

- At the workshop, PAGE introduced key knowledge products and the Green Economy Progress Measurement Framework (GEP) to participants from the Department of Environmental Affairs, DPME and Statistics SA.
- PAGE contributed to a Roundtable Discussion on Skills in Renewable Energy Technologies (RET). The roundtable was hosted by the National Business Initiative, an employer organization. PAGE support included conducting a diagnostics on the RET sector to identify areas of growth/development, and implications for skills.

Uruguay
For more details: c.linke@unido.org

- PAGE advanced a Strategic Environmental Assessment for one of 10 priority areas for Uruguay’s 2050 vision - wood, timber and cellulose value chains.
- PAGE initiated policy development work in two areas: 1) the promotion of Green Jobs for vulnerable populations, and 2) the design and implementation of land-use policies to balance residential and industrial land use.
- On May 9, PAGE organized a workshop to study international markets for repurposed materials and value-added waste. The workshop was held in partnership with the Ministry of Industry, Energy and Mining. 25 representatives from national and departmental government institutions and waste management companies participated in the workshop.

Mongolia
For more details: amrei.horstbrink@unitar.org

- PAGE is supporting the integration of SDGs into local-level development plans, including in Orkhon Aimag. In Orkhon, a working group held meetings on 28 May - 4 June to advance policy development.
- The PAGE national coordinator provided support for a training workshop organizes by the Ministry of Environment and Education for Sustainable on May 17. The Coordinator delivered a lecture on Green Economy and Sustainable Public Procurement, and moderated a training session on Green Economy, SDGs and a local development strategy, based on the work conducted by PAGE.

Senegal
For more details: gueye@ilo.org

- From 29-31 May 2018, Senegal held the 3rd edition of its National Conference on Sustainable Development. The conference focused on the findings of a scientific commission on oil and gas exploration and exploitation, and associated environmental and social impacts. The research notably built on a report conducted by PAGE on how to manage oil and gas revenue in order to promote sustainable development.